

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

MARY FIELD AWARD 2023 in Recognition of Dedication & Support to the Waste Industry

The Local Authority Waste Management Action Committee (LAWMAC) is pleased to invite nominations for the Mary Field Award in 2023

The Mary Field Award recognises those workers in the waste industry who demonstrate passion and dedication to achieving outcomes behind the scenes, away from the limelight, tirelessly providing a service that is the backbone to the organisation.

This Award will give the opportunity for these workers to be acknowledged and recognised for their commitment and dedication to waste management.

A nominee for the Mary Field Award will be an individual.

In selecting the recipient of the award, the judging panel shall assess the nomination against the following criteria:

- An understanding of who the nominee is and how their character has influenced this nomination
- The waste management work the nominee undertakes
- Their commitment to ensuring success
- How the nominee reflects the ideals of this award
- Nominations should be no longer than two pages.

Nominations with supporting information will be required to be submitted via email to the secretary by COB 31st August 2023.

The award comprises a Certificate, Cash Component of $500, plus a Perpetual Trophy and will be presented at LAWMAC's November 2023 Award Dinner Event hosted by Rockhampton Regional Council.

You are strongly urged to consider a fellow colleague for nomination.

Nominations to be submitted to the LAWMAC Secretary at lawmacsec@bigpond.com by COB 31st August 2023.
